Honourable Rick Wilson MP, Federal Member for O'Connor, Shadow Assistant Minister for Trade has represented the people of O'Connor in Federal Parliament since 2013. The 1.1-million-square-kilometre electorate, which includes the entire Goldfields region, has always been Rick's home; he was one of six children raised on his family's farm at Katanning. Rick was inspired to run for parliament following his involvement in a decade-long campaign to deregulate the wheat industry, which brought about the end of the Australian Wheat Board's monopoly. Reduced bureaucracy, higher standard of health, aged care, education services and improving our communications network are some of the key areas Rick has focused on since entering parliament. Under the Coalition team led by Peter Dutton, Rick is Shadow Assistant Minister for Trade, a good fit for the O'Connor electorate which is a mining and agricultural sector powerhouse.

Honourable Neil Thomson MLC, Member for Mining & Pastoral, Shadow WA Treasurer & Shadow Minister for Environment: As the Member for the Mining and Pastoral Region, Neil brings his business consulting experience, and years at senior level in the State Government, to represent the unique and diverse needs of regional WA. Spanning the lower house seats of Kalgoorlie, Kimberley, Pilbara and Mid-West there are plenty of issues – and opportunities - across the 2.2m sq kms electorate. Holding a Masters Degree in Science (Agriculture), Neil spent much of his career in Treasury, including leading competition reform at a national level on behalf of the State. Neil held senior roles in the Department of Agriculture, Fisheries, Planning and Aboriginal Affairs, including as Assistant Director General and Secretary of the Planning Commission. Since coming into parliament in 2021, Neil was the driving force highlighting key issues such as the failed Aboriginal Cultural Heritage Bill and successful repealing of that bill alongside ongoing regional power blackouts and regional issues. Neil holds the important Shadow portfolio of Shadow Treasurer alongside Shadow Minister of Environment.
