

TICKETING TERMS OF SALE – STALL HOLDERS CANCELLATION TERMS

Tickets are sold on behalf of the KBCCI as host of the event and are subject to the conditions applicable to the event and/or the venue where presented.

Registered events that have paperless tickets are classed as ticketed events.

We strongly recommend purchasing tickets for all KBCCI shows from KBCCI's official website <https://www.kbcc.com.au/events/register/>. Tickets purchased from a third party or unauthorised seller may be fraudulent and you may be refused entry.

Management reserves the right of admission.

Tickets are non-refundable, however, requests for transfer of name will be accepted within 2 business days prior to the event.

The KBCCI reserves the right to replace advertised entertainment and speakers with a similar calibre of entertainment and speakers at their discretion.

Late-comers may only be admitted at the discretion of the Management and at a convenient break in the program.

All venues maintain a 100% smoke free environment.

State liquor licensing laws apply to most venues, Liquor may not be brought into the premises.

'Venue' correct at time of printing, management reserves the right to substitute venues as required. Notification will be given.
